TEA HORSE ROAD DAJU VILLAGE, CHINA

A contemporary 18-room luxury retreat at the heart of a traditional Naxi town surrounded by farmland

At the heart of Daju, a quaint historical Naxi town, is our 18-room luxury retreat. Its chic modernist architecture and design contrast beautifully with the surrounding farmland, forests, and traditional homes. The retreat is made up of two residences within walking distance: each with a restaurant and garden. LUX* Tea Horse Road Daju is an invitation to escape from your daily routine, embrace slow living, while taking in the soul-stirring culture and otherworldly landscapes. Our beautiful base has been designed to inspire you to venture beyond, and go deeper.

In the area

White Water Terraces

The Baishui terraces are natural pools formed by mineral-rich water flowing from Haba Snow Mountain. The result is an astonishing frozen-like waterfall.

Tiger Leaping Gorge

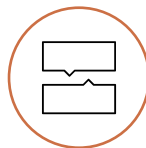

Tiger Leaping Gorge is one of the deepest gorges in China. And just a 10-minute car ride away is Jinsha river, which flows between two mountains.

Visit a farm and harvest seasonal fruit

Set among mountains and fields, Daju village is known as the fruit garden of Lijiang. Follow our team member and visit a local farm and learn about the different harvests.
