
LUX* Me

2014 World Luxury Spa Award Winner

March 28, Floreal, Mauritius

Great news for LUX* Resorts! The LUX* Me spas have just been voted Best Luxury Spa Group in the Indian Ocean region.

The prize has been announced by The World Luxury Hotel and Spa Awards, accepted as the pinnacle of achievement for Luxury Hotels & Spas worldwide. It is based on the spas' outstanding achievement in service delivery over the past year, as voted for by guests and industry consultants.

In congratulating the LUX* Me team members, the Awards' organisers have written, "Your entire team have worked so hard to reach the top spot amongst all other industry competitors. LUX* Me spas have now set a benchmark as an industry leader with this remarkable outcome and we trust that this Award will be an inspiration to your entire team for years to come".

Celebrating a lifestyle that is healthy, fit, radiant and vibrant, the award-winning spa and wellness concept LUX* Me embodies a holistic approach to wellbeing. Part of LUX* Resorts – a collection of hotels in the Indian Ocean that celebrate light island living – the LUX* Me experience promotes balance as the most important ingredient in a healthy lifestyle. With this approach, the LUX* Me concept combines exercise, nutrition and spa programmes to help guests achieve the age-old aspiration of a healthy mind in a healthy body. With the recent addition of a series of treatments inspired by Chinese traditional medicine, LUX* Me spas offer an unparalleled opportunity for a tropical beach holiday that is at the same time deeply relaxing, rejuvenating, indulgent and healing.

"It will indeed inspire us. There is nothing more motivating than guest and industry recognition of LUX* Resorts' ambition to provide guests with a luxury experience in a relaxed and friendly setting" says Jeff Butterworth, Chief Spa and Wellness at LUX* Resorts.
