

LUX* Grand Gaube awarded as “Most Attention Worthy Hotel” and LUX* South Ari Atoll recognized as “Best Tropical Island Resort” & “Best Overseas Hotel Award” in the 2017 Travelling Scope Magazine Awards and 2017 Voyage Magazine Awards

LUX* Resorts & Hotels is honoured to have been recognised by two of the top travel publications in China, bringing attention to the LUX* brand once more internationally. The highly anticipated LUX* Grand Gaube Resort, which will be opened in February of this year has already been recognized as Most Attention Worthy Hotel in the first annual Travelling Scope Awards. Travelling Scope Magazine is a prominent national tourist publication for elites, all the elements that define a traveler’s experience from political and social issues to hotels and spas, food, shopping, the arts and nightlife. LUX* South Ari Atoll which renovated in 2016 was also awarded as Best Tropical Island Resort in the Travelling Scope Awards. LUX* South Ari Atoll also recently received an award for 2017 Best Overseas Hotel from Voyage magazine.

“It’s fantastic that LUX* Resorts & Hotels is receiving continued recognition in China, and we are glad to see more Chinese travelers are staying at our resorts and hotels, enjoying LUX* Tie-Xin Service – which exclusively designed for Chinese guests.” says Tom Tang, Head of Sales and Marketing – Asia Pacific of LUX* Resorts & Hotels.

LUX* Grand Gaube, on the northern coast of Mauritius, has been completely reimagined by British interior designer Kelly Hoppen, bringing guests a fresh-spirited luxury resort with a wonderfully eclectic mix of colourful prints, retro chic furniture and lots of greenery. A spectacular renovation recently completed has seen the resort re-emerge with 186 rooms and suites complete with LUX* Sleep Tight mattresses and private sundecks with uninterrupted views of the Indian Ocean.

The picture-perfect island of Dhidhoofinolhu, home to LUX* South Ari Atoll, is one of the largest islands in the Maldives. A slice of tropical heaven, where laid-back luxury blend itself with the warmth of traditional Maldivian hospitality, and complemented by sparkling events and experiences, LUX* South Ari Atoll is as ideal for families and groups of friends as it is for lovers’ romantic moments.
