

LUX* MALDIVES NOMINATED FOR THE 2015 EDITION OF MATATO MALDIVES TRAVEL AWARD

LUX* Maldives is delighted to announce its participation to the fourth annual edition of the MATATO Maldives Travel Awards, with award finalists being announced during the Arabian Travel Market in Dubai on the 5th of May 2015.

LUX* Maldives has already been awarded “Leading Family Resort” in 2014 and “Leading All-Inclusive Resort” in 2013. The five star resort is once again willing to defend its position in three key categories this year: Leading Beach Resort, Leading Wellness & Spa Resort and Leading All Inclusive Resort. The annual awards is an opportunity for LUX* Maldives to reaffirm its ambition to be a leading resort in the Indian Ocean and promises to provide each guest the best level of service in a warm and friendly environment that they will long to return to.

LUX* Maldives provides an atmosphere of simple, relaxed and welcoming luxury with its 193 rooms and villas including beach front thatch-roofed pavilions, suites and villas, plus four varieties of water villas, perched on stilts above the turquoise waters of the lagoon. General Manager, Shaun Dünhofen, declares: “We are particularly happy to again be participating in this prestigious event which gathers renowned hospitality professionals from across the industry and permits us to showcase our own, original and light-hearted experience that is truly LUX*”.

The nomination process for the 2015 MATATO Maldives Travel awards will be running until 25th of March 2015. Votes for LUX* Maldives can be cast by clicking directly on the link below:
