Pricing

We adopt dynamic pricing and the price of our rooms, products and services fluctuates based on demand and other factors. Before confirming a reservation or purchase, we will provide you with a total price for the requested number of rooms and nights, together with the charges for any additional products or services you may have added. Depending on the room rate selected, payment may be due at the time the reservation is made through our Sites, or at a later date, such as upon check-in at the relevant hotel.

The price you pay is the price quoted to you at the time you make your reservation or purchase, except that if Value Added Taxes or other government taxes or surcharges are included within the price and change between the date of your reservation or purchase and the date of your stay, we will adjust the rate that you pay unless you have already paid for the reservation, product or service in full before the change takes effect.

Unless otherwise indicated, meals and other extras are not included in the room price but you may be able to add them to your reservation during the booking process or they may be available to you during your stay. Also, the prices quoted do not include passport or visa handling, travel insurance, airport and port taxes, gratuities or other similar charges unless otherwise stated.

You may pay using any one of the currencies supported by our site. The applicable exchange rates of the supported currencies shall be determined at our sole discretion, or by our payment processing provider, as the case may be. Payment

For the purpose of payment processing for goods and/ or services purchased on these Websites, The Lux Collective Ltd is domiciled at 32 Rue de Mogador, 75009 Paris, France (identification number BRN 425 087 574 R.C.S. We require customers to provide their bank details as a guarantee of the reservation, except for special conditions or rates, using a credit card or debit card, indicating directly in the area provided for this purpose

(secure entry by SSL encryption) the card number without spaces, its expiry date and the card security code, as prepayment via the Adyen payment platform. Alternative payment methods (such as PayPal, bank transfers, direct debit) may also be permitted to prepay via the Adyen payment platform.

In the event of a no-show or a last minute cancellation, the cost of the complete stay will be debited as a fixed indemnity from the payment method specified by the customer in the reservation guarantee.

If the customer wishes to reserve multiple rooms or package elements, but prepayment is only required for one of these rooms or elements, for example, the payment method used on the Adyen platform enables the room or element in question to be prepaid while the specified payment method acts as a guarantee for the other rooms and elements.

Agreement on evidence

The specification of necessary bank details and the acceptance of these terms and conditions and the reservation form or reservation request constitute an electronic signature equivalent in value to a physical signature between the parties.

The computerised records retained in Lux information systems shall be retained under reasonable levels of security and considered as proof of communication, orders and payments between the parties.

The customer is hereby informed that his IP address is recorded at the time of reservation.
